

ALOHA 2019

The word 'Aloha' is a Hawaiian word which is used when greeting or parting from someone. The very name suggests that it was an event that marked the end of two years that our seniors had spent in this institute and the beginning of a new journey, a journey towards a bright future. On 15th May 2019 we celebrated their memories of these class-rooms and corridors. We began this emotional evening with greeting our teacher Head of the Department Prof. Sudeepa Banerjee, our then Director Prof. Rajagopal Dhar Chakraborty and all other teachers and staff members present there. All of them spoke fondly about our beloved seniors.

We began this fun-filled evening with a beautiful dance presented by Nupur Sarkar. She danced on a melodious Bengali song that left all of us mesmerized. After this, two of our classmates Suchetana Sarkar and Soumalika Basu sang "Amar bhitor o bahir e" in which farewell is expressed excellently. It portrays farewell which is used to express good wishes on parting. Such a song left every one emotional in the room. Oindrila Maity, presented a graceful dance on a popular Rabindra Sangeet. This was followed by dance performance by Shirsha Bhattacharjee and Sneha Roy on popular Bollywood songs. The seniors were a great audience appreciating and enjoying every bit of the programme that we arranged for them with all our hearts. Nicole Saviel also sang a beautiful song that touched our hearts. Shirsha Bhattacharjee and Shramana Chakraborty danced on popular Bollywood songs. After this, there was a group dance which was also on catchy Bollywood songs. This was presented by Sayantika Sen, Suparna Manna, Dayita Chakraborty and Oindrila Maity. In between all the performances we arranged for two games which not only the seniors enjoyed but were also enjoyed by us. Snacks were served in the activity room to all of them. Lastly, I would like to mention that this event would not have been possible without the earnest efforts of our C.Rs(Sayantika Sen and Somnath Misha), event coordinators (Shirsha Bhattacharjee and Shramana Chakraborty) and our placement coordinators(Sneha Roy, Soumili Nandy and Nicole Saviel). It was their efforts that made the evening such a memorable one. Apart from them, the two of our anchors(Suchetana Sarkar and Debangana Mukherjee) also helped to make this event enjoyable. The seniors spoke about their journey, experience and memories of this institute. The evening ended with laughter, fun, frolic and a lot of memorable moments.
